Second Home Show Attracts 1,700 During Opening Here

Despite bad weather, more than 1,700 persons turned out last night for the opening of the second annual Levittown Civic Association-Levittown Public Recreation Association Home Show in the LPRA Community Hall, Levittown Shopping Center. The show will be open again tonight, 5 to 11 o'clock and tomorrow from noon to 11 p.m.

Featuring home improvement aids, the show is free and includes some 35 exhibits. Free soil tests are made, and officials of Bristol, Falls and Middletown Township are available to answer questions concerning building codes and zoning regulations. On opening night many women attended a demonstration of new electrical cooking appliances.

Big deal. New typewriter.

We've never yet read clear, concise, alert prose that didn't come from one of these gadgets at least 25 years old. If you've got a quick question, we've got a quick answer: Our machine was considerably short of the real comfortable and mellow ripening age.

Somebody's Going To Receive $500

COINWORD has reached $500 and that's far enough.

Contest No. 11, appearing today on Page 5, will be worth that amount to the winner. If there is no perfect solution submitted, then the closest to perfect solution will be declared the winner. In case of a tie, the $500 will be divided.

Deadline for entries is midnight Monday. En- tries must be postmarked or brought to the Cour- ier-Times Building by that time.

So get busy on the puzzle. It's fun. And there will definitely be a winner, announced next week. Wouldn't that $500 come in handy for that trip to the shore or mountains, or to buy that car you've been eyeing up?

Joint Board OK's $5,989,963 Budget

Both the Bristol Township and the Delhaas Joint School Boards last night formally and finally approved a budget of $5,989,963.72 for fiscal 1961-62.

The final budget exceeds the tentative budget by only $29,912.50 and calls for no rise in the school boards' levy on the township tax- payers.

Budget Additions
The increase over the tentative budget is accounted for by some additional teacher salaries, by provision for a summer school program, and by some other minor appropriations.

The joint board's approval of the budget came during a special meeting which preceded last Eberhart's Successor?

Twp. School Board Delays Appointment

The Bristol Township School Board failed last night to appoint a new school superintendent to replace Dr. Guy F. Eberhart, who leaves the local system July 1 to take up superintendency of a school system near Cleveland, O.

Board members had indicated earlier that Dr. Eberhart's suc- cessor would be appointed last night. Now, according to one spokesman, no formal action on the appointment will be taken until a special meeting of the board which has been called for May 22.

The special meeting will fol- low Tuesday's primary elections by nearly a week, and was so scheduled, according to one board member, "so nobody will lose any (Continued on Page 3, Col. 5)

No Date Set For Confab

GENEVA (UPI)—The 14- nation conference on the future of Laos was post- poned today until tomorrow or Monday because of an East-West fight over which Laotian delegation to seat at the talks.

The initial meeting of the conference was to have started at 3 p.m. (10 a.m. EDT) today, not long after a delayed formal re- port arrived here from the Inter- national Control Commission in Vientiane confirming that a cease-fire actually exists in Laos.

Receipt of this report cleared the way for United States and British participation here, since both Washington and London had insisted they would not take part in the Geneva parley unless a cease-fire were certified by the ICC.

But no sooner was that issue resolved than an East-West struggle started on the seating of the Laotian representatives.

The minutes ticked by without any resolution of this question until about an hour before the 3 p.m. scheduled start, when a British spokesman announced the postponement without explanation.

This delay was disclosed fol- lowing a meeting between British Foreign Secretary Lord Home and Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko, co-chairmen of the conference.

The postponement came after the International Control Commission had reported that a general cease- fire exists in Laos.

Study Report
Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Home and French Foreign Min- ister Maurice Couve de Murville studied the report together, and agreed it met Western require- ments for start of the talks.

Laos Meets Red Demand

VIENTIANE, Laos (UPI)—The royal Laotian government yielded to Communist rebel demands to- day and agreed to hold all po- litical and cease-fire negotiations behind enemy lines.

The unexpected government con- cession broke a weeklong dead- lock on where to hold the talks designed to solidify peace and work out details of military cease- fire in this strife-torn jungle king- dom.

The International Control Com- mission sent a report to Britain and Russia on the cease-fire, and spokesmen in Geneva said it showed a general cease-fire exists here.

The government agreed to send Bou Voravong, a member of the national assembly and a former telecommunications minister, and Thong Sing, also a member of the national assembly, along with military representatives for talks in the Communist-held village of Namone, 60 miles north of Vientiane.

Lower Bucks voters of both po- litical parties will have what may be their last chance tonight to see and select their favorite candi- dates for Tuesday's primary elec- tions, when Democratic and Re- publican rallies will be held in Falls Township.

The Democratic candidates will appear in Levittown No. 1 Fire House, Tullytown - Fallsington Road, at 8:30 p.m. The Republi- can homestretch rally is sched- uled for the same time in Penns-bury Inn, Bordentown Road, but GOP headquarters said events may not start until 9.

Ratterman Arrest Sparks Cleanup

NEWPORT, Ky. (UPI) — The arrest of George Ratterman, former professional football quar- terback and reform group candi- date for sheriff, has spurred mem- bership in the campaign to cleanup Newport and Campbell County.

Ratterman was arrested Tues- day in a hotel room above the Tropicana Club here with a strip- tease dancer. He and his sup- porters have claimed he was framed.

A three-way investigation is un- derway in the bizarre case. The Federal Bureau of Investigation, the Campbell County Grand Jury and local police are conducting it.

Ratterman, the father of eight, had claimed that he was drugged and taken to the hotel above the club owned by Tito Carinci, former Xavier University football- er.

He produced a lab report show- ing that chloral hydrate was found in his blood.

The former Cleveland Brown player has indicated he has no plans to get out of the race for sheriff. Indeed, the incident seems to have stirred up more support for him.

Missing Movie Mgr. Found, Faces Charges

The curtain will go up tonight on another act in the drama of Bristol's Grand Theater and it's now-defunct summer stock season when the theater's former man- ager, Edward Ellmore, will be brought before Justice of the Peace Peter J. Harkins on a charge of larceny.

Ellmore is charged specifically with absconding with $600 of the theater's money, bringing about the end of the 1959 season and possibly the end of the line for the theater, which has been dark ever since.

He was arrested yesterday after a 17-month search by police of Darby Township, Delaware County, on a warrant forwarded to them by Bristol Chief of Police Vincent A. Faragalli, who acted on information that Ellmore was in Darby.

$1,000 Bail

The Darby Township officers took Ellmore before Magistrate Anthony Sazio, where he posted $1,000 bail, to be forfeited if he does not appear before Squire Harkins tonight.

Ellmore was associated with the theater when a group of Bristol merchants decided to re-open it for the summer of 1959 with a series of summer stock plays.

They brought such actresses and actors as Helen Hayes, Diana Barrymore, Ann Sheridan, Pat O'Brien and Joe E. Brown to the Grand in a series of plays, and despite the casts, laid a financial egg.

Bensalem Plans Speed Checks

Bensalem Police Chief William Riemp today said that the de- partment will conduct speed checks in the township over the weekend and that persons caught exceeding the speed limit will be prosecuted.

The checks are being conducted because of an increase in traffic fatalities in the county and a rise in auto accidents in the town- ship, Riemp said.

Question Raised On School Board Treasurer's Pay

A sticky question was raised but left hanging last night over the salary of the treasurer of the Bristol Township School Board.

The question, posed at the May meeting of the board, was this: Why should the present and past treasurers of the board have been paid $3,500 annually while the upcoming treasurer is to get only $1,200 for the same job?

Non-Member

The next treasurer will be named in July, when the board is raised officially from third to second class by the State Department of Public Instruction. He will be a non-member of the board. Present and past treasurers have been board members. The salary question came from

Thomas Derbyshire, Dixon Ave., Croydon, who asked board President Newton H. Parkes Jr.: "Why the reduction now that the treasurer won't be a board member? The job will be the same, won't it?"

Parkes, who was treasurer before being named president in January, replied that the job would, indeed, be the same. He added that the reduction was "a decision of the board."

Derbyshire then wondered:

"Were we overpaying the treasurer before this change, or are we going to be underpaying someone now, or what?"

Decide For Yourself

Parkes guessed that "that's something you'll have to decide for yourself."

Present treasurer is R. Philemon Stout, who was board president before the January position shift.

where District Attorney Paul R. Beckert of Levittown is seeking a second term, with endorsement of the GOP executive committee.

Beckert has the endorsement of the executive committee and a Citizens Committee. He is opposed by Harold S. Patton, also of Levittown, who draws his support from a hard core of party workers.

Democratic Race

David A. Clarke of Morrisville is the endorsed candidate in the Democratic contest for the district attorney nomination. He is opposed by Peter J. Verderame of Levittown.

The Democratic primary election also features contests for the sheriff and jury commissioner nominations. In the Republican primary, the nomination for county controller is contested.

The primary elections are also enlivened by factional contests for nominations for local office, in many of the boroughs and townships. Tax collector positions, apparently because of reports of lucrative pay, have attracted a record number of candidates. In Middletown and Falls Townships Democratic party splits will come to a head in the primaries, while the Bristol Borough primary features a hot battle for the burgess nomination.

Record Note Predicted

Harold F. Hellyer Sr., chief clerk of the county board of elections, predicted that the keen interest in the county and local contests will bring a record primary turnout of 50 per cent of the voters.

Beckert had to fight for his first term, as well, in a keen primary fight. He defeated John J. Bodley, now a county commissioner, in May, 1957, 14,562 votes to 10,828. For the D.A. nomination, that November he ed the ticket of winning Republican candidates, defeating Harry J. Leiderback by 5,665 votes.

In this spring's peculiar turn of pre-election activity, the executive committees of both parties debated supporting Beckert in their primary elections. Most of the controversy resulted from Beckert's prosecution of County Commission Chairman Edward B. Boyer for extortion and bribery. Boyer was acquitted by a jury Jan. 31.

Patton—Then Beckert

Beckert, in announcing he would seek a new term, said he would not accept the endorsement of the GOP executive committee unless Boyer was removed from that committee. Boyer resigned from the committee and Patton won the endorsement. Two weeks later, apparently moved by dissatisfaction within the party, the endorsement was switched to Beckert. Patton had been unanimously endorsed by Beckert was not.

Patton, 42, lives at 235 Thornridge Drive, Levittown. He was admitted to the Bucks County Bar in 1954, after serving in Washington, D. C., as an attorney for the Federal Trade Commission. He received his law degree at the University of Pennsylvania and a master's degree in administrative law at George Washington University.

Bronze Star

He is president of the board of trustees of the Lower Bucks County Y.M.C.A., past president of the Levittown-Fairless Hills Rotary Club and vestry secretary of All Saints Episcopal Church, Fallsington.

Patton won a bronze star for bravery and the Purple Heart as an Army Infantryman in Germany in World War 2. He and his wife, Jean, have two children.

Beckert, 39, was admitted to the Bucks County Bar in 1952. He became an assistant district attorney in 1953 and was elected district attorney in 1957. He attended Dickinson College, Drexel Institute of Technology and Temple University Law School.

VFW Charter Member

He was the first elected president of the Levittown Civic Association and is a charter member of John Billington Post, VFW, the Levittown Exchange Club and Levittown Fire Co. No. 2.

He served in the Navy in World War 2 aboard the destroyer USS Biddle, entering as an apprentice seaman, and became a lieutenant (j.g.). He and his wife, Norma Jean, have three children.

Clarke, 39, has been practicing law in Bucks County since 1950. He is a graduate of Doylestown

High School, the University of North Carolina and the University of Pennsylvania Law School.

Active In Morrisville

He has been solicitor for Morrisville Borough and the Bucks County Planning Commission. In 1951 he was the unsuccessful Democratic candidate for county treasurer. He is active in many Morrisville civic and service organizations.

He and his wife, Jacqueline and their three children live at 909 North Pennsylvania Ave. He was a lieutenant in the Navy in World War 2, aboard anti-submarine vessels.

Verderame, 35, a partner in the Verderame and Bortner, has been a Bucks County lawyer for five years. He is a graduate of Temple University and its law school.

He lives at 1 Peony Road, Levittown.

Served in Navy

He is active in Levittown-Fairless Hills Chapter 4215, Knights of Columbus and has served as its advocate. He and his wife, Carmella, have five children. Verderame served in the Navy in World War 2 and was recalled to service in the Korean War, serving in the Pacific Theater both times.

There are three candidates for sheriff in the Democratic Party, while the Republican incumbent is unchallenged.

The Democratic candidates are Arthur J. Stump, 38, 1600 Bonnie Brae Drive, an Upper Southampton Township supervisor and advertising copy writer; Thomas Carey, 4, 3200 Austin Drive, Fairless Hills, railroad conductor for U. S. Steel Corporation; and John J. Long, 43, Quakertown, a machinist for the state highway department. Long is endorsed by the Democratic Executive Committee.

Sheriff Harold Dando, 56, of Doylestown, seeking a second term, is endorsed by the GOP executive committee and is unopposed in his party's primary.

Both Housewives

The Democratic Party also features a contest for the nomination for jury commissioner. The nominee is sure of election, as a commissioner is elected from each party.

They are Florence R. Fontana of Ivyland, president of the Middle-Upper Women's Democratic Club and Dorothy Kernzer, Levittown, former president and now first vice president of the Bucks County Women's Democratic Club. Both are housewives. Mrs. Fontana has the endorsement of the Democratic executive committee.

Russell Schanely, 33, county director of veteran affairs, Quakertown Borough Councilman and former Clerk of Quarter Sessions, is an independent candidate for the GOP county controller nomination.

Endorsed by the GOP organization for controller is William R. Cameron, 38, Southampton attorney. Cameron is a graduate of Duke University and its law school. He is former county solicitor.

The rest of the county ticket includes:

Common Pleas Judge: Incumbents endorsed by both parties, Edward G. Biester, John P. Fulam, Lawrence A. Monroe.

Recorder of Deeds: Democrat, John E. O'Brien, Falls Township. Republican, Donald Heinemann, Bensalem Township.

Prothonotary: Democrat, Dominick J. Dilisio, Bristol Borough. Republican, LeRoy Evans, Bristol Township.

Controller: Democrat, Richard C. Bonner, Bristol Township.

Jury Commissioner, Republican Marion F. Baum, Perkasie Borough.

France Delays Gagarin Invite

PARIS (UPI) — France today suspended an invitation to Soviet spaceman Yuri Gagarin after it had been reported he would arrive the same day as President Kennedy.

Officials of the Union Syndicale des Industries Aeronautiques, which will stage the 24th Paris Air Show beginning May 26, announced the suspension of its invitation to Gagarin to attend the show.

Swim Pool Proposed In Bensalem

The Bensalem Township School Board has begun a study of a plan for the construction of an outdoor community swimming pool in the township.

The study is the result of a suggestion made Wednesday by members of the township's recreation board who proposed that the school district participate in a joint venture.

Construction costs would be between $4,200 and $8,000, it was estimated.

Called Ideal Site

Recreation board member Frank Pagano said that a site on the junior-senior high school grounds near Street and Hulmeville Roads would be ideal because of its central location.

At present, the recreation board sponsors a summer swim program at a pool owned by St. Francis Vocational School. If the township were to have its own pool, many more township residents could enjoy the facilities, Pagano said.

Other alternatives discussed were a pool to be located in Nottingham where a state park has been under study; the Logan State Park at the mouth of the Neshaminy, and a county pool which could be constructed near or in Bensalem Township.

Grundy's Corner

School Superintendent Robert K. Shafer said that he proposed Grundy's Corner to the county commissioners after Bristol Borough voted down the well field site. Shafer said that he has not received word from the commissioners.

Jury Returns 12 True Bills

True bills returned this week by the Bucks County Grand Jury included:

Raymond C. Prey, 240 Roosevelt St., Bristol, drunken driving. George William Reis, Whitewood Drive, Levittown, Rebecca Kushman, 512 Hulmeville Road, Langhorne, driving after license had been suspended and revoked. Diomedes Crespo, Pennsbury Inn, Falls Township, failure to stop motor vehicle and submit identity at scene of accident.

Allen Wesley Shields, 15 Mistletoe Lane, Levittown and Bernard J. Rhodes, 30 Emerald Lane, Levittown, assault and battery.

Paul Detty, 48 Ruby Lane, Levittown, drawing and uttering worthless check.

Joseph Salva, 301 W. Bridge St., Morrisville, malicious mischief. Bambina Lattanzi and Giuseppe Lattanzi, 1422 Bath Road, Bristol, unlawful sale of liquor or malt or brewed beverages to a minor, permitting minors to frequent licensed premises.

Gerson Schlusser, 1711 Solly St., Philadelphia, rape, assault and battery with intent to ravish, indecent assault, assault and battery, adultery, corrupting morals of child, tending to corrupt morals of child.

The seven kids, according to William A. Kelius, president of the Levittown Lions, are being sent to Beacon Lodge Camp for the Blind, on the Juniata River near Lewistown.

There they will be taught to swim, row a boat and bowl

2 Sentenced For Stealing Motor Oil

Two Philadelphians who pleaded guilty to stealing 35 quarts of motor oil from the Morrisville Hi-Test Service Station, U. S. Route 1, Falls Township, March 2, were sentenced to Bucks County Prison this week.

Judge Lawrence A. Monroe sentenced Eugene Joseph Michael Armstrong, 5333 N. Camac St. and Charles Zielinski, 7157 Uber St., to 30 to 300 days in prison.

Others Sentenced

Others pleading guilty and sentenced were:

Lacey Eugene Owens, Woodside, contributing to delinquency of child, failure to submit identity at scene of accident, $100 fine and one year suspended sentence.

Benjamin B. Brown, 15 Pine-wood Drive, Levittown, drunken driving, $250 fine.

Thomas G. McRoberts, 2921 Lincoln Highway, Trevoise, drunken driving, 30 days, Bucks County Prison.

Bernard Petraska, 1812 Farragut Ave., drunken driving, Bristol, $200 fine. John A. Devine, 344 Washington St., Bristol, drunken driving, $200 fine.

Andrew Johnson Hargrove, 1004 Court G, Bristol Terrace 2, assault and battery, one year probation, on condition that he abstain from intoxicating liquor and stay out of bars.

Donald Wesley Hogeland, 195 North Park Drive, Levittown and Patrick O'Donnell, 235 Devon Road, Fairless Hills, racing, $150 fine each.

In addition, financial support is pouring in from Cincinnati and northern Kentucky areas outside Campbell County.

The incident may also have pulled the U. S. Justice Department into the situation.

"We are aware of what happened there," a department official said. "But we have no further comment now."

Atty. Gen. Robert Kennedy's beefed-up crime and racketeering section is reported interested in the current uproar here.

The last time Newport was the target of an intensive federal study was when a U. S. Senate committee investigated racketeering on a national scale.

Thief Gets $10, Damages Vault

The office of Rednor and Kline, Inc., building materials supplier on Route 1 Freeway, Falls Township, was burglarized last night or early this morning.

The robbers got only $10 from a desk drawer, according to Falls Township police, but between $100 and $200 in damage was done to a wall and vault.

The vault enclosed a safe, which was not tampered with, police reported. The vault was broken into through the office wall.

Apparently, entry was made through an open lavatory window.

The theft was discovered by township officers Hugh McCue and James McManan while on a routine patrol at 6:30 a.m. this morning. Police are now investigating.

Adenauer Man Named In Eichmann Trial

JERUSALEM (UPI)—The name of Hans Globke, state secretary in the office of West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, was brought into the Adolf Eichmann trial today for the first time.

A document was introduced purporting to show that Globke was among those at a Nazi meeting Jan. 15, 1941, at which the question of the confiscation of the property of Jews was discussed.

The meeting agreed on the draft of a plan for the confiscation of property of Jews who had lost German citizenship. Eichmann was not present at the meeting.

Gobke has been attacked by the East German Communists as having been a former Nazi.

The prosecution charged that no matter involving the persecution of the Jews was too trivial for Eichmann to take charge of personally.

A document was introduced showing Eichmann wrote a letter transferring control of a Jewish orphanage in Hamburg to his department in Berlin. The letter was received by Max Plaut, head of the Jewish community in Hamburg, between 1939 and 1942. It stated that the Nazis chose Jewish holidays as the time to execute their most repressive measures.

Another document said Eichmann personally passed on a request by a Jewish boy in Germany to send some clothing to his mother in occupied France. He rejected the request on the grounds that if it were granted other Jews would want to do likewise.

A young Jewish witness described how he spent his boyhood on a grim merry-go-round through Nazi concentration camps.

Mordecai Ansbacher was shuttled from one camp to another, he said, and at one stage was parted from his mother who was gravely ill with dysentery. He never saw her again.

3 Injured In 2-Car Crash

Three persons were injured yesterday in a two-car collision at Newportville - Fallsington Road and Penn Valley Road, Falls Township.

According to Falls Township police, Lynn K. Eichinger, 34, Pine Grove Road, Morrisville, will be charged with going through a stop light after his car collided with one driven by Mrs. Betty Kramer, 31 North Court Lane, Levittown.

Eichinger received contusions of the hip in the accident. Mrs. Kramer suffered contusions of the ribs and her son, Harry, 13, suffered abrasions of the left leg and elbow.

The injured were treated and released at Lower Bucks County Hospital where they were taken by the Levittown-Fairless Hills Rescue Squad.

Eichinger was traveling east on Newportville Road and Mrs. Kramer was moving north on the Penn Valley Road when the accident happened at 4:15 p.m., police said.

cease-fire report was "reasonably satisfactory." And an American spokesman said "the cease-fire is no longer an issue."

But the question of who is to represent Laos remained a big issue.

There are three Laotian factions — the pro-Western government of Premier Prince Boun Oum, the "neutralists" of former Premier Prince Souvanna Phouma and the Communist-backed Pathet Lao rebels.

The per capita tax, which in 1959-60 brought $288,313.46 from local taxpayers, has been eliminated this year.

LPRA Events Are Outlined For Summer

Walter Richardson, the Levittown Public Recreation Association's recently appointed program director, outlined an extensive and comprehensive summer recreation program during last night's two-hour public LPRA meeting.

Richardson's program covered everything involved with summer activities from swimming to special events nights.

Among the program's new features are the following activities:

Family Swim Nights

Family swim nights, each Tuesday and Thursday, beginning June 20 and continuing through Labor Day. They will last an hour, except at the Country Club pool, where a two and a half hour program will be held.

Special swim for children under nine years of age, accompanied by an adult.

Teenage basketball leagues, adult volleyball and informal morning soft ball sessions.

Special programs will include organ music at each pool one night a week on a rotating basis.

Other Activities

Also, father-son and mother-daughter days at the pools; competitive swim teams at each pool; competitive life saving meets; water shows and other activities.

At the courts and playgrounds, programs include dances, two full length movies outside of the pool area and four special "days." Frontier Day, a pet show, a field day and a carnival-type day.

The program director said all programs would be designed to reach all children at all levels of athletic ability.

Richardson stated, "There has been too much emphasis on champions. The poor little guy who doesn't win feels lost and the poor little guy looking through the fence feels left out. In our programs we will try to reach all children and give them a feeling of accomplishment and belonging."

Missing Movie

two managers were fired and Ellmore elevated to the job. Then, in an effort to recoup their losses, the merchants turned the Grand back into a movie house for the winter.

They were attracting the first big crowds to enter the Grand in a long time when, near the end of November, Ellmore disappeared and so, the merchants claim, did the $600.

The theater was shuttered. It has not been re-opened since; last summer it was sold at auction to a Philadelphia speculator who is attempting to resell it now.

The warrant against Ellmore is signed by David Norman, of Norman's Stationery Store. However Norman is on a two-month tour of the Orient presently, with his itinerary calling for him to be in Sarawak tonight.

Chief Faragalli said today that a postponement probably will be asked, with the $1,000 bail continued until Norman's return, scheduled for June 6.

Dove Workers Reject Union

Employees of J. B. Dove, Inc., Beaver and Canal Sts., Bristol, yesterday voted 10 to 8 against affiliating with Local 181 of the United Automobile Workers, the National Labor Relations Board announced today.

J. B. Dove manufacturers packaging equipment for supermarkets and employs approximately 30 persons. Only 18, however, are in the non-supervisory work and thus qualified to vote in the NLRB election.
